

SOCIETY

Mrs. Zoe Boyles has returned from a visit to Atlanta, where she attended Grand Opera.

For Dr. and Mrs. Fraser. The members of the First Presbyterian Church will entertain in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Fraser on Tuesday evening from 6:30 to 9 o'clock on the church lawn. All members of the congregation are most cordially invited to attend.

This is the tenth anniversary of Dr. Fraser's pastorate in the First Church, and the congregation wish to express its appreciation of his services in this way. No written invitation will be issued.

Shower for Miss Dowling. Some of Miss Laurie Dowling's friends planned a shower for her on Thursday afternoon, and they all met at the home of Miss May Dillingham, each one bringing some dainty gift of the honoree. As the Dowling home was burned on Monday, and these friends wished in this way to express their esteem for their school mate. Miss Dowling was completely surprised, and the afternoon was delightfully pleasant and informal.

The Heart's Delight Club. The Heart's Delight Club was pleasantly entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Berry Allen. The guests were gathered on the porch, and as this was the first of the porch parties it was especially enjoyed. Many bowls of lovely sweet peas were used to brighten the pretty little bungalow. Mrs. Walsman Gilmer has been elected Treasurer of the club.

The hostess was assisted in receiving the guests at the door, by Mesdames, T. B. Allen and F. B. Watson. Misses Miriam Lee, Kathleen Elsie Watson, Maude Balleentine, and Suddie Watson served delicious strawberry ice cream and cake. The next meeting will be at Mrs. Fritz Watson's.

GIVE ELABORATE BANQUET FOR THE VISITING LADIES

Interesting Talks Made at Entertainment at Anderson College.

GIVE ELABORATE.
The most elaborate entertainment of the week was the banquet given by the Civic association on Thursday evening in the dining room of the Anderson College to the visiting ladies of the Federation of clubs. This was an ideal place for such an entertainment, the double parlors were used to receive the guests and in the receiving line were Mrs. Rufus Fant, president of the Civic association, Mrs. J. L. Coker, first vice president of the South Carolina Federation, Mrs. Frank B. Gary, second vice president, Mrs. Foster McKelvie, ex-president of S. C. Federation, Mrs. Eugene Kelly, corresponding secretary of the General Federation, Mrs. T. S. Lingle, president of the North Carolina Federation, Mrs. C. McC. Patrick, vice president of the Civic association, Mrs. O. L. Martin, secretary of the Civic association, Dr. Josiah Morse, of South Carolina University, Dr. and Mrs. James Kinard, Dr. and Mrs. John E. White and Dr. W. H. Fraser.

The banquet hall bore evidence not only of skillful hands, but artistic as well. The six tables the entire length of the room, were exquisitely laid and decorated, sweet peas and peonies were used in abundance, the sweet peas in large baskets with high handles, and pink tulle draped across forming a full bow to the side, the peonies were also pink, the color used in all of the decoration, and were in tall vases, crystal candelabras held pink candles, festooned above the tables with garlands of pink roses caught with pink tulle streamers, this effect was particularly graceful, a frieze of the same encircled the hall.

An elaborate menu was served in courses by some of the members of the Civic association, after which Mrs. C. McC. Patrick made an introductory talk, telling some of the few things that the Anderson women were proud of, the first being that the celebrated tenor Reed Miller belongs to Anderson, as also his gifted wife, the latter by adoption. She also said that Anderson was glad to claim Albert Johnston and that they were proud of the president of the Civic association of Anderson, who had made possible by her indomitable energy and executive ability, this charming body of women, the South Carolina Federation of Women's clubs, to meet in this city this week. Mrs. Patrick also said that the women of this city were glad to have the opportunity of showing the visitors Anderson College in which every Andersonian took especial pride and introduced the College Glee Club of the college who sang delightfully.

Mrs. Eugene Kelly, corresponding secretary of the General Federation was next introduced and made a splendid talk on "The General Federation as a Social Factor." The Federation felt that they were specially honored in having with them Dr. Josiah Morse, of South Carolina University, and he gave a great impetus for community interest in his talk of "The Development of Community Spirit."

The next subject Mrs. Patrick announced was the most difficult to handle, Mrs. J. L. Coker, first vice president of the South Carolina Federation, said that Mrs. James Kinard would handle him sufficiently and efficiently. As the hour was growing late, Mrs. Kinard gave a short toast to which Dr. Fraser responded, taking as his theme "Woman."

The young ladies of the Glee Club sang a bright number, and then ended a most delightful entertainment.

General regret was expressed that the president, Mrs. J. W. Allen, was not able to be present, but after the strenuous session of Thursday, which lasted until after 8 o'clock, she was physically exhausted.

ADVANCE SALE OPENS ON MONDAY MORNING

TICKETS WILL BE PUT ON SALE FOR BIRTH OF A NATION

LOCAL INTEREST

Is Now Running High and Many Are Anxious to Secure Their Tickets.

Since the first announcement that "The Birth of a Nation" would be shown at the Anderson theatre for three days, starting Monday night, May 22, Manager J. J. Trowbridge has been deluged with inquiries as to the prices, the opening of the advance sale and other details. The degree of local interest in the Griffith spectacle amounts almost to a frenzy and it will be a great relief to the manager when he can open the sale and begin the distribution of tickets.

The advance sale will be opened at the Anderson theatre box office Monday morning at 9 o'clock and a long line is expected. In New Orleans, Birmingham, Nashville, Atlanta, Richmond and other cities where the big film and music opera broke all records this season, the line never broke until the last ticket was sold. No such scenes had been witnessed around the theatre since the frequent visits of David Warfield. "The Follies" and attractions of that calibre.

It should be borne in mind by persons who are planning to see the big Griffith spectacle—which probably includes every playgoer in Anderson—that they can insure their comfort by attending one of the early performances. Toward the end of the engagement, when the real importance of the offering becomes known, the crowds will surge in to fill every inch of space in the theatre. In Richmond it became necessary to call the police to quell the clamoring throngs at the final performance and to clear the lobby after all the seats had been sold. In Atlanta there were similar scenes, although the extending of the engagement from one week to three weeks relieved the situation there and gave everybody an opportunity to obtain tickets. At it will be impossible to extend the local engagement, wise playgoers will buy their tickets early and attend one of the opening performances.

Permanent Relief for Chronic Constipation

Knowledge and Practice of Correct Daily Habit the Great Essential.

Constipation is a condition affecting all classes of all people and can be permanently relieved only by acquiring habits of regularity. The most natural time for the eliminative process is in the morning when both the muscular and nervous systems are relaxed by sleep and rest. When relief does not come readily, it is an excellent plan to take a mild laxative at bedtime. Cathartics and purgatives, that by the violence of their quick action shocks and disturbs the system, should not be employed.

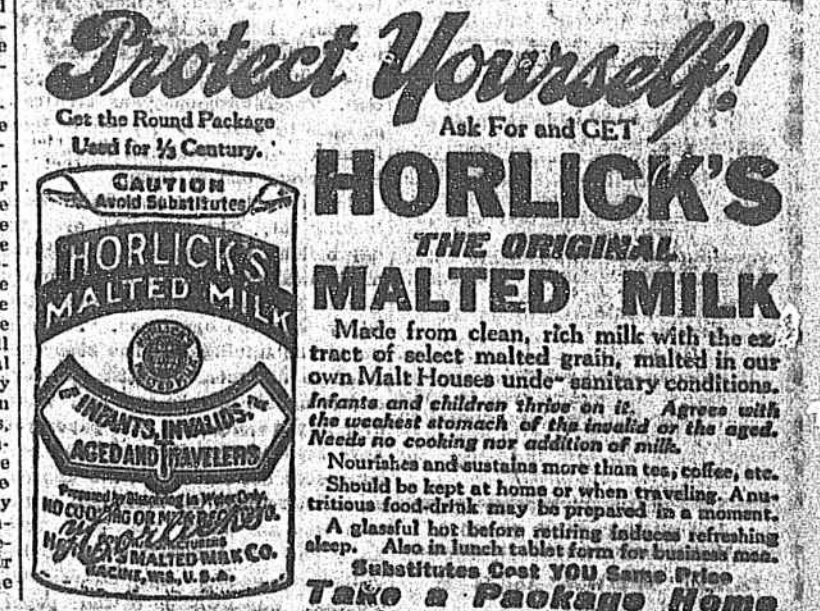

An effective laxative remedy that is very dependable, and which does not gripe or otherwise disturb the organs involved, is found in a combination of simple laxative herbs known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This can be bought at the drug store for fifty cents a bottle.

Mrs. C. C. Allen, 215 Fourth St., New Monterey, Calif., wrote to Dr. Caldwell that she found Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin just what was needed for constipation and distress of the stomach after eating. It should be in every household. Get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and keep it in the house to use when occasion arises. A trial bottle free of charge can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 466 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.
